J. S. SMITH, Windsor, Vt.
My appetite had failed, my flesh and strength had all gone; my kidneys were all the time; I was dizzy and faint in the morning, and sick at my stomach all the time. At times my head would pain me, as though it would burst. I could not rest at night, as I was obliged to attend to the calls of nature every hour, and the water I passed gave every evidence that a terrible form of kidney disease had fastened itself upon me. The great reputation of your medicine as a kidney cure, reached me. I thought I would try it without giving it a trial. Under its use, I grew worse for the first week. Then the great change came. The improvement was rapid and steady. Three bottles made me a well man, and I have been well ever since. That weary worn-out sufferer from kidney complaint may know what can be done for them. I cheerfully send you this testimonial.
